A celebration of aviation innovation

For 27 years, Concorde ruled the skies as the fastest passenger aircraft, cruising at more than twice the speed of sound. Fast as a bullet and sleek as a swan, Concorde was a technological marvel – and a stylish symbol of national pride. Long after it was retired, Concorde's legacy and mystique live on.

We're celebrating this iconic airliner and the 50th anniversary of its first commercial flight with eight new stamps showcasing the glamour and grandeur of supersonic travel. A striking Miniature Sheet features original designs from the 1969 First Flight of Concorde Special Stamp issue, including exclusive unreleased artwork from renowned English designer David Gentleman.

You'll also discover collectible Coin Covers, framed souvenirs and a fact-filled Presentation Pack exploring Concorde's enduring impact on the aviation industry and culture at large. So, climb aboard and take flight through a groundbreaking chapter in British aviation history.

① Mint Stamp Set | AS14200 £13.60

- Eight Special Stamps marking the 50th anniversary of Concorde's first commercial flight on 21 January 1976.
- Striking photography capturing Concorde in flight showcases the iconic aircraft's sleek and stylish design, from its distinctive delta wings to the signature droop nose.
- Eight First Class landscape stamps presented in four horizontal se-tenant pairs.

8 First Class stamps:

- British pre-production Concorde rolled out, 1971
- British pre-production Concorde in flight, 1974
- Concorde's first British Airways livery, 1974
- Concorde's first UK commercial flight, 1976
- Concorde flying overhead, 1985
- Concorde celebrates ten years of service, 1985
- Concorde's last British Airways livery, 1997
- Concorde's final commercial flight, 2003

② Miniature Sheet | MZ219 £6.80

- A stunning commemorative souvenir reprising iconic original designs from the 1969 First Flight of Concorde Special Stamp issue.
- Three elegant illustrations from prolific artist and stamp designer David Gentleman bring to life the supersonic jet's distinctive silhouette, while a fourth stamp from Michael and Sylvia Goaman captures Concorde in flight over France and the British Isles.
- Each stamp has been rereleased with the King's head to mark 50 years since Concorde's historic first commercial flight.

4 First Class stamps:

- The unmistakable profile of Concorde, captured by David Gentleman in his design for the original 9d stamp.
- David Gentleman highlighted the sleek lines of the nose and tail of Concorde on the 1969 1s 6d stamp.
- Concorde in flight over the British Isles and France by Michael and Sylvia Goaman on the 1969 4d stamp.
- David Gentleman's third shortlisted submission, which originally featured the unadopted English spelling of 'Concord'.
