Unearthing the rich history of Vikings in Britain

In the late 8th century, the first Viking raiders arrived on our shores in a maelstrom of fire and steel, setting in motion a period of profound transformation that would eventually unite an island of independent kingdoms into the country we know today. Now, more than a millennium later, the once-scattered traces of Viking settlements have been restored to reveal the secrets of our distant past.

Roval Mail honours the enduring legacy of Vikings in Britain and marks the 40th anniversary of JORVIK Viking Centre with eight new stamps and collectibles, capturing the life and history of the seafaring Scandinavian people whose language, customs and traditions changed the fabric of our nation forever.

Featuring detailed composite images, the stamps showcase historical Viking artefacts and sites of archaeological importance. You'll also discover a fact-filled Presentation Pack. framed artwork and a unique Medal Cover inspired by Viking Age currency.

So, voyage through the ages to uncover the stories of the settlers, merchants and would-be kings who traded, conquered and prospered – and whose legacy remains legendary, even today.

Mint Stamp Set | AS11100 £12.90
