A mighty fortress, Royal palace and infamous prison

For almost a thousand years, the Tower of London has been at the heart of British history, inspiring awe, fear and fascination. It's a place of myth and legend, ceremony and tradition.

Discover tales of treachery and torture, ghostly sightings and grisly deaths with Royal Mail stamps, collectibles and limited edition keepsakes honouring this UNESCO World Heritage site.

Six new stamps celebrate the time-honoured traditions and fascinating features of a castle that has played many different roles: from impenetrable fortress to royal residence, menagerie of exotic animals to place of execution. A fact-filled Miniature Sheet recalls the Tower's most infamous prisoners and a Medal Cover honours its celebrated Yeoman Warders and beloved ravens.
